

Curriculum

The residency curriculum is organized into 13 four-week blocks per academic year. Training progresses from foundational experiences in PGY-1 to greater clinical responsibility, specialty exposure, elective time and preparation for independent practice in PGY-2 and PGY-3.

PGY-1

Rotation	Blocks	Duration
Orientation	1 block	4 weeks
Adult Inpatient Medicine	2 blocks	8 weeks
Family Medicine- Outpatient	1 block	4 weeks
Pediatrics- Outpatient	1 block	4 weeks
OB/GYN	1 block	4 weeks
Emergency Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Cardiology	1 block	4 weeks
General Surgery	1 block	4 weeks
ICU	1 block	4 weeks
Radiology / Research	1 block	4 weeks
Inpatient Pediatrics	1 block	4 weeks
Elective	1 block	4 weeks

PGY-2

Rotation	Blocks	Duration
Adult Inpatient Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Family Medicine -Outpatient	1 block	4 weeks
Pediatric- Outpatient	1 block	4 weeks
Nights- Adult Inpatient Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Newborn- Pediatric Inpatient	1 block	4 weeks
OB/GYN	1 block	4 weeks
Ortho	1 block	4 weeks
Gastroenterology	1 block	4 weeks
Nephrology	1 block	4 weeks
Infectious Disease	1 block	4 weeks
Research / Hospital Management	1 block	4 weeks
Pediatric Emergency Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Elective	1 block	4 weeks

PGY-3

Rotation	Blocks	Duration
Adult Inpatient Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Women's Health- Outpatient	1 block	4 weeks
Family Medicine-Outpatient	1 block	4 weeks
Sports Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Dermatology	1 block	4 weeks
Psychiatry	1 block	4 weeks
Endocrinology	1 block	4 weeks
Rural Medicine	1 block	4 weeks
Geriatrics	1 block	4 weeks
Electives	4 blocks	16 weeks

Residency Clinic

Training Year	Continuity Clinic Experience
PGY-1	1-2 half-day per week
PGY-2	2-3 half-days per week
PGY-3	2 full days per week